Helping Professionals Re-Find Work and Rebuild Their Lives

Community and Career Resources

211 First Call for Help

211 is a free, confidential, and federally designated number that connects people with local community services and resources. 211 specialists are trained to identify and address the underlying causes of a caller's problem and connect them with resources to meet their needs. 211 is available 24/7/365 in more than 180 languages.

Dial 211 from any phone or visit: <https://211tampabay.org>.

Transition Masters

Our very own Joe Jones heads up an amazing nonprofit program designed specifically to help job seekers develop their self-promotion and presentation skills.

Learn more: talk with Joe Jones, as he attends many Career Rebound gatherings and/or visit: <https://www.transitionmasters.org>.

Café con Tampa

Friday's every week at 8am at the Portico.

1001 N. Florida Ave., Tampa, FL 33602

Weekly gatherings for neighborhood and community leaders where socio-economic issues are discussed. High profile speakers, good conversations, and networking opportunities. Open to everyone. Rebounders are especially welcome. The $12.00 fee can be waived for Career Rebounders by entering the code "scholarship" at online registration. Learn more details at
